As you see it, what is the importance of the Torch Relay? Explain.

The importance of the torch relay is that the tradition of the Torch Relay dates back to the first Olympics, when runners would travel throughout Greece to announce the beginning of the Games.

3.Submit your thoughts to our forum:

For some Canadians, the 2010 Olympics are a cause for celebration and a source of pride. For others, the Games are no big deal.

If you were given an opportunity to see the Torch as it passes close to or through your community, would you accept or decline the invitation? Give reasons to explain your response.

A good submission is clearly written, logically organized (including an introduction and a conclusion), and supported with plausible reasoning. We'll post the best ones!

I would accept the invitation because
